This memorial website was created in the memory of our loved one, Michael Myers who was born in Massachusetts on January 20, 1958 and was called home by the Lord on July 30, 2005 at the age of 47.

December 23, 2004--- The day that changed my life forever.

On that day, the doctors found that my father, Michael James Myers, had pancreatic cancer. January 26, 2005, my daddy had a distal pancreatectomy and spleenectomy and was told he was cancer free and did not even need chemotherapy treatment. Less than a month later, we found out his cancer had spread to his liver and other surrounding organs. My father received numerous chemo treatments, none of which helped. Less than 7 months later, he was gone.

July 30, 2005, the Lord called my father home at 7:42 am. I was holding his hand in our living room, crying and praying that the only person in life who understood me and loved me unconditionally was gone.

My father was the most loving, compassionate, smartest, hard- working man I knew. Growing up, he was my idol and biggest fan. He pushed me to strive in athletics, school, and faith. He was different than other fathers- His love for God and his family outweighed anything ever imaginable.

I pray that you out there that have parents left will not fight with them or disobey them. Cherish them- you will never know when they aren't here to hold. I would do anything to have my dad back or to be with him for another day.

Rest in Peace, Michael James Myers.

I know one day, we will meet again at Heaven's pearly gates. My life will be complete once I see you again.
